

Business Charter for Mental Health in the Workplace

- I Preventive, healthy workplaces supported by good management practices.
- II Informed, understanding workplaces shaped by improving employee's knowledge of depression.
- III Well-trained, responsive workforce with mandates and training for executives and managers to support employees in a constructive manner.
- IV Open and safe workplace where employees are encouraged to talk about mental health concerns.
- V An Adaptive, supportive workplace with ties to the community.